2 · Grammar

No new grammar: Learning Path 1 and 4.

Learning Path 2 · What are they doing?

Present Continuous

How it works

- Present Continuous = am / is / are + verb-ing, for actions happening now. I'm playing · She's skating · They're watching. Negative: I'm not playing · He isn't playing · We aren't playing. Questions: Are you playing? Is she skating? What are they doing? Short answers: Yes, I am. / No, she isn't.
- -ing spelling: play → playing · dance → dancing (drop the -e) · swim → swimming, run → running, sit → sitting (one vowel + one consonant: double the consonant).
- Time markers: now, right now, at the moment, today, this weekend, this week, Look! / Listen! · Short answers never use contractions: Yes, she is (not ~~Yes, she's~~).
- Word order in questions: (Question word) + am / is / are + subject + verb-ing: Why are they cheering? Who is scoring? (with who as the subject, no extra pronoun).

Learning Path 3 · Now or usually?

Present Simple or Present Continuous?

How it works

- Present Simple = habits and things that are always true: I usually play on Saturdays. She goes skating every Sunday. Markers: usually, always, never, every day, on Saturdays, in winter.
  Present Continuous = now: Today I’m playing inside. Look! She’s skating. Markers: now, right now, at the moment, today, this weekend, Look!, Listen!
- Contrast: I usually go swimming, but today I’m watching a match. (habit + now)
- State verbs are not used in the continuous, even for now: like, love, hate, want, need, know, prefer, understand, believe, mean. I want a new bike now (not ~~I’m wanting~~). Do you understand?
- Temporary situations: the Present Continuous also describes things that are true for a limited time, not only this second: This month I’m training for a race. My cousin is living with us this year. · think has two meanings: I think skating is great (opinion, no continuous) · I’m thinking about my next video (an activity now).

Learning Path 5 · Likes and screen tips

like + -ing and imperatives

How it works

- like / love / hate / don’t mind + verb-ing: I love skating. She hates losing. We don’t like getting up early. Question: Do you like playing online? Same -ing spelling as the Present Continuous (swimming, dancing).
- Imperatives for tips and instructions: the verb with no subject. Take a break. Go outside. Switch off your phone. Negative: Don’t + verb: Don’t use your phone in bed.
- Giving a reason for a tip: imperative + because / so: Switch off your phone at night, because the light keeps you awake. Set a time limit, so you have time for other things.
- Instead of + -ing and enough: Go outside instead of watching videos. One hour is enough. · After like, British English also accepts to + verb for habits (I like to swim in the morning), but use -ing in this LS.
