5 Speaking: my free time

Record yourself talking about your free time. Use notes; don't read.

Your task
Describe your free time: what you do, how often, what you are good at and why you like it, and one thing you never do (45–60 seconds).

Model
I spend a lot of my free time playing the guitar: I practise every day because I want to join a band. I'm quite good at it now. At the weekend I go cycling with my dad, and I never get up late, even on Sundays!

Write what you will say · Then read it aloud three times and say it to your teacher.

What do I need to review?

📚 Study guide: prepare for Checkpoint 1 and the final exam

How to study what you learn in this Learning Path, and practice that works like the checkpoint and looks like the exam. The answer key is at the end of each activity.

How to study

🧠 Test yourself, don't reread

Close your notes and try to remember: write the words, say the rule, answer the questions. Then check. Rereading and highlighting feel useful, but you remember much less.

Retrieval practice · Roediger & Karpicke 2006; Dunlosky et al. 2013

📅 Spread it out

Three short sessions of 15 minutes on different days work better than one long session the day before.

Spacing · Cepeda et al. 2006

🔀 Mix it up

Practise similar things together so you learn to choose the right one for each sentence.

Interleaving · Rohrer & Taylor 2007

✅ Check and fix at once

Mark your answers with the key straight away and write each wrong answer again, correctly.

Feedback · Hattie & Timperley 2007

💬 Say why

For every answer, say the reason: "on, because it's a date." Explaining makes the rule stick.

Self-explanation · Dunlosky et al. 2013

😴 Sleep on it

Your brain stores what you learn while you sleep. A short self-test and a good night's sleep beat studying late the night before.

Sleep and memory · Diekelmann & Born 2010

My plan

1. Today · Close this page and write from memory: five free-time activities with play / go / do and two sentences about your week. Then check.
2. In 2–3 days · Do “Practise for Checkpoint 1” below. Look at the key and write again what you got wrong.
3. Before Checkpoint 1 · Go over the flashcards: only the ones you still miss.
4. The week before the exam · Do the exam-style practice in every Learning Path, then the Sample exam. Repeat only the parts you failed.

What comes up

Checkpoint 1 (LS1 and Learning Paths 1 and 2): short gaps, one question at a time, about 45 seconds each, no going back and no notes. You do it once, and you must stay on the page: if you leave it, it is sent. It opens the next Learning Path.
Final exam: this Learning Path comes up in the Listening (questions with four options), the Vocabulary (free-time activities, play / go / do) and the Grammar from LS1 (Present Simple, adverbs of frequency).

Practise for Checkpoint 1

One question at a time · 45 s

It works like the real checkpoint: 13 questions, one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back and no notes. This is only practice: nothing is sent, you can repeat it, and at the end you see your answers and the key.

On paper: cover the questions and uncover them one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back.

1. I _____ (play) the guitar on Mondays.
2. She _____ (go) swimming every Saturday.
3. We play _____ at the park. (bàsquet)
4. He _____ (be) good at football.

6. My sister _____ (not / do) karate.
7. _____ you go cycling at the weekend? — Yes, I do.
8. I _____ go to bed late. (mai)
9. I go skating _____ a week: on Tuesdays.
10. He reads comics _____ his free time.
11. What time _____ your sister get up?
12. I want to _____ a basketball club. (apuntar-me)
13. I practise the piano every day because I want to get _____.

Like the exam: Listening

5 × 2 points

Listen to the recording from this Learning Path once without the questions. Then read the questions and listen again.

Transcripts (only if you cannot listen)

Transcript 1 · Where are you? (Laia and Omar)

Laia: [cheerful] Hi Omar! Where are you? It’s really noisy.

Omar: Hi Laia! I’m at the sports centre. My sister is playing basketball and I’m watching the match. She’s playing really well!

Laia: Oh, nice! Do you go every Saturday?

Omar: No, not every Saturday. I usually go swimming on Saturday mornings, but today the pool is closed. What about you? What are you doing?

Laia: [laughs] I’m at home. I’m drawing a comic about a cat who plays the guitar. And it’s raining, so I’m not going to the park.

Omar: A cat who plays the guitar? I want to see it! Listen, the match finishes at twelve. Do you want to meet in the square at half past twelve?

Laia: Perfect. I’ll bring the comic. See you there!

Omar: See you!
