5 Shadowing · Screen Smart (School Radio)

Repeat part of the listening just behind the speaker, like a shadow.

How it works

Your teacher plays the clip three times: first read while you listen, then mumble the words along, then say them aloud just behind the speaker.

Presenter: Tip number one: take a break. After thirty minutes on a screen, stop for five minutes. Stand up, look out of the window, drink some water.

Presenter: Tip number two: set a time limit. Decide how long you want to play, for example one hour, and use the timer on your phone. When it rings, stop.

Presenter: Tip number three: switch off your phone one hour before you go to sleep, and keep it out of your bedroom. The light from the screen tells your brain that it is still daytime, so you don't sleep well.

6 like + -ing and imperatives

Read how it works and complete. After two wrong tries you will see the answer.

How it works

like / love / hate / don't mind + verb-ing: I love skating. She hates losing. We don't like getting up early. Question: Do you like playing online? Same -ing spelling as the Present Continuous (swimming, dancing).

Imperatives for tips and instructions: the verb with no subject. Take a break. Go outside. Switch off your phone. Negative: Don't + verb: Don't use your phone in bed.

Giving a reason for a tip: imperative + because / so: Switch off your phone at night, because the light keeps you awake. Set a time limit, so you have time for other things.

Instead of + -ing and enough: Go outside instead of watching videos. One hour is enough. · After like, British English also accepts to + verb for habits (I like to swim in the morning), but use -ing in this LS.

1. I love _____ (skate) at the park.
2. She hates _____ (lose) a match.
3. We don't like _____ (get) up early.
4. _____ you like _____ (play) online? — Yes, I do.
5. My brother _____ (not / like) swimming.
6. I don't _____ training in the rain. (no m'importa)
7. Tip: _____ a break every 30 minutes. (fer)
8. Tip: _____ off your phone at night. (apagar)
9. Tip: _____ use your phone in bed. (negatiu)
10. Tip: _____ outside and _____ with your friends. (anar / jugar)
11. Correct the mistake: "You put your phone away at dinner." (make it a tip) → _____ your phone away at dinner.
12. Correct the mistake: "I like play video games." → I like _____ video games.
13. Switch off your phone at night, _____ the light keeps you awake. (raó)
14. Set a time limit, _____ you have time for other things. (resultat)
15. _____ your phone out of your bedroom. (mantenir)
16. Tip: _____ check your phone every five minutes. (negatiu)
17. They love _____ (watch) highlights after the match.
18. Go outside _____ _____ watching videos all afternoon. (en lloc de)
19. Turn off notifications when you study, _____ you can concentrate.
20. One hour of games a day is _____: you don't need more. (suficient)
21. Correct the mistake: "Don't to use your phone in bed." → _____ use your phone in bed.

7 Mixed practice: choose the form

Mixed forms: -ing after like, Present Continuous, Present Simple or imperative?

1. I love dancing, and right now I _____ (dance) in my room!

3. Tip: _____ a break and drink some water. (fer)

8 Piece 4: my likes and my screen tips

Write the part of your vlog where you say what you like about your hobby and give screen-use tips. This is the fourth piece of your vlog.

Your task

Write 90–120 words: what you love, like and hate about your hobby, and three screen-use tips with imperatives, each with a reason (because / so), that prevent addictive habits (time limits, breaks, no phone before sleeping). End with the tip you are going to apply yourself and why.

Model (don't copy it)

I love skating because it's fast and fun, and I like watching skating videos too. But I hate feeling tired in the morning, and that happens when I watch videos in bed. So here are my tips: take a break every thirty minutes, because your eyes need a rest. Set a time limit for games, so you have time to go outside. And don't use your phone in bed: keep it out of your bedroom.

Pauta: I love ___-ing because ___. I like ___-ing. I don't like ___-ing. And two tips for you: ___ (imperatiu). Don't ___.

Minimum 90 words.

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

Check before you hand it in ☐ love / like / hate + -ing used correctly

☐ Three screen-use tips with imperatives, each with a reason (because / so)

☐ The tips prevent addictive habits

☐ The tip you will apply yourself, and why

9 Speaking: my tips

Record yourself giving your tips as in a vlog. Use notes; don't read.

Your task
Say what you love and hate about your hobby, give three screen tips with a reason each, and say which one you are going to apply (45–60 s).

Model
I love cycling because I can go anywhere, but I hate checking my phone every five minutes: it's a bad habit. So here are my tips: turn off notifications when you study, so you can concentrate. Set a time limit for games, because one hour is enough. And keep your phone out of your bedroom. That's the tip I'm going to apply this week!

Write what you will say · Then read it aloud three times and say it to your teacher.

10 Talk: free time and screens

A School Radio reporter interviews you about free time and screens.

Your task
Answer in detail: give your opinion with reasons, a useful tip, and compare your screen time with the school average (three and a half hours a day).

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

1. What do you love doing in your free time?

2. What do you hate doing?

3. How much time do you spend on screens every day?

4. What's your best screen tip?

5. Do you switch off your phone before you go to sleep?

6. What do you enjoy doing outside?

7. Is three and a half hours a day too much? Why?

Then · Have the conversation aloud with a classmate: they ask and you answer, then swap.

Model

I love playing football and I really enjoy drawing comics, because I can invent stories. I can't stand tidying my room. I spend about two hours a day on screens, which is less than the school average, but at weekends it's more. I think three and a half hours is too much, because you have less time for friends and sport, and you sleep worse. My tip is: leave your phone in the kitchen at night.

📚 Study guide: prepare for Checkpoint 3 and the final exam

How to study what you learn in this Learning Path, and practice that works like the checkpoint and looks like the exam. The answer key is at the end of each activity.

How to study

🧠 Test yourself, don't reread
Close your notes and try to remember: write the words, say the rule, answer the questions. Then check. Rereading and highlighting feel useful, but you remember much less.
Retrieval practice · Roediger & Karpicke 2006; Dunlosky et al. 2013

📅 Spread it out
Three short sessions of 15 minutes on different days work better than one long session the day before.
Spacing · Cepeda et al. 2006

🔀 Mix it up
Practise similar things together so you learn to choose the right one for each sentence.
Interleaving · Rohrer & Taylor 2007

✅ Check and fix at once
Mark your answers with the key straight away and write each wrong answer again, correctly.
Feedback · Hattie & Timperley 2007

💬 Say why
For every answer, say the reason: "on, because it's a date." Explaining makes the rule stick.
Self-explanation · Dunlosky et al. 2013

😴 Sleep on it
Your brain stores what you learn while you sleep. A short self-test and a good night's sleep beat studying late the night before.
Sleep and memory · Diekelmann & Born 2010

My plan

1. Today · Close this page and write from memory: three things you love doing (love + -ing) and two screen tips. Then check.
2. In 2–3 days · Do "Practise for Checkpoint 3" below. Look at the key and write again what you got wrong.
3. Before Checkpoint 3 · Go over the flashcards: only the ones you still miss.
4. The week before the exam · Do the exam-style practice in every Learning Path, then the Sample exam. Repeat only the parts you failed.

What comes up

Checkpoint 3 (Learning Paths 1–3 and 5): short gaps, one question at a time, about 45 seconds each, no going back and no notes. You do it once, and you must stay on the page: if you leave it, it is sent. It opens the next Learning Path.
Final exam: this Learning Path comes up in the Listening (questions with four options), the Vocabulary (likes and screen tips) and the Grammar (like + -ing, imperatives).

Practise for Checkpoint 3

One question at a time · 45 s

It works like the real checkpoint: 13 questions, one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back and no notes. This is only practice: nothing is sent, you can repeat it, and at the end you see your answers and the key.

On paper: cover the questions and uncover them one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back.

Transcripts (only if you cannot listen)

Transcript 1 · Screen Smart (School Radio)

Presenter: [warm] Good afternoon, this is Screen Smart on School Radio. Today we're talking about phones and free time. Last week, we asked four hundred students about their screen time, and the average is three and a half hours a day. That's more than twenty-four hours a week!

Presenter: Many of you said: "I love playing online and watching videos, but I hate feeling tired in the morning." So here are four tips from our school nurse.

Presenter: Tip number one: take a break. After thirty minutes on a screen, stop for five minutes. Stand up, look out of the window, drink some water.

Presenter: Tip number two: set a time limit. Decide how long you want to play, for example one hour, and use the timer on your phone. When it rings, stop.

Presenter: Tip number three: switch off your phone one hour before you go to sleep, and keep it out of your bedroom. The light from the screen tells your brain that it is still daytime, so you don't sleep well.

Presenter: And tip number four, my favourite: go outside! Play football, go skating, meet your friends in the park. Real fun is better than any video.

Presenter: [cheerful] Choose one tip and try it this week. Next week, tell us how it went. This was Screen Smart. Now, put your phone away and enjoy the afternoon!

Transcript 2 · Noah: Saturday at the bike park

Noah: Hey, what's up? I'm Noah, and today I'm at the bike park with my friends. It's Saturday morning, it's sunny and really windy, so it's perfect for riding. I'm wearing my helmet, gloves and my old blue tracksuit, because the park is full of mud. Behind me, Leo and Sara are racing down the hill. Leo is winning, as usual! I usually ride here with my dad on Sunday mornings, and we go slowly. But this weekend I'm filming a race for our club channel, so I'm not riding, I'm holding the camera. Next week I'm racing too. Wish me luck!
