5 Shadowing · Student council meeting

Repeat part of the listening just behind the speaker, like a shadow.

How it works
Your teacher plays the clip three times: first read while you listen, then mumble the words along, then say them aloud just behind the speaker.

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

Laia: OK, everyone. We're meeting the head teacher on Monday, so we need a plan today.

Omar: Right. The event is going to be about festivals of light: Diwali, Hanukkah, Lunar New Year and Christmas.

Laia: Good. When is it?

Omar: It's on Friday the eleventh of December. School finishes at two, so the event starts at ten and finishes at one thirty.

Laia: Where's it going to take place?

Omar: In the school hall. There will be four stalls, one for each festival.

Laia: What about food?

Omar: I'll ask the families. I think a lot of parents will help.

6 Future forms

Read how it works and complete. After two wrong tries you will see the answer.

How it works

going to for plans you already have (We're going to decorate the hall.) · will for decisions made now and offers (I'll bring the music.) · There will be + noun (There will be music and food.).

Present Continuous for arrangements (We're meeting the head teacher on Monday.) · Present Simple for timetables (The event starts at 10.00.) · will for predictions (I think everyone will love it.).

One plan, five futures: choose the form by the reason. Decided before → going to · arranged with someone → Present Continuous · on the programme → Present Simple · decided now or offered → will · predicted: will for an opinion (I think…), going to when you can see it coming (Look at those clouds! It's going to rain.).

8 Piece 4: our event plan

Plan with your group and write your own version.

Your task
Write the plan (140–180 words + a timetable): the Core plan plus estimated cost and who pays (resources), two concrete welcome actions for students and families, with a reason for each (although, on the other hand), and one possible problem with a plan B.

Pauta: The event is going to take place in ___ on ___. There will be ___, ___ and ___. ___ is going to ___. I’ll ___. Materials: ___. To make everyone feel welcome, we will ___ and ___.

Minimum 140 words.

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

Check before you hand it in

☐ Timetable, roles and materials

☐ At least four future forms, each for the right reason

☐ Estimated cost and who pays

☐ Two welcome actions, each with a reason (although / on the other hand)

☐ A possible problem and plan B

9 Speaking: planning meeting

Record yourself presenting the plan.

Your task

Present the plan and answer two “What if…?” questions: What if it rains? · What if some families don’t celebrate this? · What if there’s no money? (90–120 s)

Model

If it rains, we’ll use the gym as well as the hall. Although some families don’t celebrate these festivals, the day is about learning, not belief, so everyone can take part. On the other hand, money is limited, so each stall will cost less than twenty euros.

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

Write what you will say · Then read it aloud three times and say it to your teacher.

10 Talk: planning meeting

A student council member asks you about your celebration day plan.

Your task
Answer with all the future forms, and when there is a problem, offer a solution (If it rains, we'll…).

1. What are we going to do on the day?
2. Where is it going to take place?
3. We need music. Who can bring it?
4. What time does it start?
5. When are we meeting the head teacher?
6. How can we make everyone feel welcome?

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

7. What if it rains and the hall is too small?

Then · Have the conversation aloud with a classmate: they ask and you answer, then swap.

Model

We're going to set up four stalls, one for each festival of light, and there will be music, food and a lantern workshop. It's going to take place in the school hall, and the event starts at ten. I'll ask my cousin's band, and if they can't come, I'll make a playlist. We're meeting the head teacher on Monday morning. To make everyone feel welcome, we'll explain that not every family celebrates the same way. And if it rains, we'll open the gym too, so nobody feels crowded.

What do I need to review?

📚 Study guide: prepare for Checkpoint 3 and the final exam

How to study what you learn in this Learning Path, and practice that works like the checkpoint and looks like the exam. The answer key is at the end of each activity.

How to study

🧠 Test yourself, don't reread

Close your notes and try to remember: write the words, say the rule, answer the questions. Then check. Rereading and highlighting feel useful, but you remember much less.

Retrieval practice · Roediger & Karpicke 2006; Dunlosky et al. 2013

📅 Spread it out

Three short sessions of 15 minutes on different days work better than one long session the day before.

Spacing · Cepeda et al. 2006

🔀 Mix it up

Practise similar things together so you learn to choose the right one for each sentence.

Interleaving · Rohrer & Taylor 2007

✅ Check and fix at once

Mark your answers with the key straight away and write each wrong answer again, correctly.

Feedback · Hattie & Timperley 2007

💬 Say why

For every answer, say the reason: "on, because it's a date." Explaining makes the rule stick.

Self-explanation · Dunlosky et al. 2013

😴 Sleep on it

Your brain stores what you learn while you sleep. A short self-test and a good night's sleep beat studying late the night before.

My plan

1. Today · Close this page and write from memory: five words for planning an event and three sentences about a plan (going to, will, Present Continuous). Then check.
2. In 2–3 days · Do “Practise for Checkpoint 3” below. Look at the key and write again what you got wrong.
3. Before Checkpoint 3 · Go over the flashcards: only the ones you still miss.
4. The week before the exam · Do the exam-style practice in every Learning Path, then the Sample exam. Repeat only the parts you failed.

What comes up

Checkpoint 3 (LS1, Learning Paths 1–3 and 5): short gaps, one question at a time, about 45 seconds each, no going back and no notes. You do it once, and you must stay on the page: if you leave it, it is sent. It opens the next Learning Path.
Final exam: this Learning Path comes up in the Listening (questions with four options), the Vocabulary (planning an event) and the Grammar (going to, will, Present Continuous for arrangements, Present Simple for timetables).

Practise for Checkpoint 3

One question at a time · 45 s

It works like the real checkpoint: 13 questions, one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back and no notes. This is only practice: nothing is sent, you can repeat it, and at the end you see your answers and the key.

On paper: cover the questions and uncover them one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back.

1. I _____ _____ _____ (buy) the tickets this afternoon. It’s my plan.
2. “I’m thirsty.” “I _____ get you some water.”
3. _____ _____ _____ a party after the match.
4. We _____ our friends at the festival every year. (quedar amb)
5. Halloween is _____ 31 October.
6. Can you put _____ the posters on the wall? (penjar)
7. We need to _____ people to the party. (convidar)
8. My cousin _____ (not / like) parades.
9. We _____ _____ (see) the dentist at 5 tomorrow. It’s in the diary.
10. The film _____ (start) at 8.30 tonight, according to the cinema website.
11. Diwali, Hanukkah and Christmas are _____ of light.
12. I think lots of families _____ _____ (come).
13. The event will be _____ in the school hall. (= take place)

Transcript 2 · Mei: Lunar New Year

Mei: Hi! I'm Mei. I'm fifteen and I live in Manchester. My favourite celebration is Lunar New Year. It usually takes place in late January or February. A few days before, we clean the whole flat to sweep away bad luck. My brother hates that part! On New Year's Eve, my grandparents come from Liverpool and we have a huge reunion dinner. We make dumplings together, all of us around the kitchen table. For me, that's the best moment. Everybody is talking and laughing, and nobody is looking at their phone. Then the children get red envelopes with money, and we go to Chinatown to watch the dragon dance. It's so loud and colourful! Not every family celebrates it in the same way. But for us, it's about being together and starting the year with good luck.
