Sample exam

✏️ Paper worksheet: do the same activities as on the computer. Write your answers and circle the letter of the right option. Do it without notes the first time.

1 Before the exam: shadowing for the whole unit

A 6-minute review for listening and speaking: sentences from the unit's recordings. Listen, say them out loud, then do it again with no text. The video waits for you.

2 How the exam works

This sample exam has the same format and the same points as the real exam (which you will do in a Google Form). 55 minutes, no notes.

1 Listening: 5 questions + listening chart, 5 questions (2 points each)	20
2 Reading: 5 questions + reading log, 5 questions (2 points each)	20
3 Vocabulary: 7 multiple choice (1 point) + 4 gaps (2 points)	15
4 Grammar: 7 multiple choice (1 point) + 4 gaps (2 points)	15
5 Writing: a vlog script	30
Total	100

All the questions are marked automatically: your first try is your score, as in the exam. The script is marked by ChatGPT with the exam criteria, which gives you a guide mark. At the end, My score shows your total.

⚠️ ChatGPT can make mistakes: its mark is only a guide. In the real exam, your teacher marks the script.

3 Listening: Two vlogs

Listen twice to Ellie and Jack recording their vlogs, and answer.

🎧 Two vlogs: Ellie and Jack · If you cannot listen to it, read transcript 1 at the end of the worksheet (twice, as if you were listening).

    d) His coach is angry.

5 Reading: A post and a web page

Read the two texts and answer, without notes.

Text A · Post · Carla, Saturday 11:20

Hello from the beach! It’s sunny and warm, 22 degrees in November, which is crazy! I’m here with my family. My brother is swimming, my mum is reading under the umbrella and I’m playing volleyball with my cousins, and losing, as usual. We usually come to this beach in summer, so today is a special day: a beach day in November. Come and join us, we’re here until five!

Text B · Web page · Skate Fest

Sunday 29 November · 16:00 · Skate Park Nord

Watch the best young skaters in town! There is a competition, live music and free lemonade for everyone. Tickets: 3 euros (children under 8: free). All the money goes to the new skate ramp, so you are helping the park. Buy your ticket online now: there are only 150 places, and last year they sold out in two days!

11. Why does Carla say the temperature is “crazy”? [2 points]

a) Her brother is swimming. b) 22 degrees is very warm for November. c) It is too cold for the beach.

d) The beach is crowded.

12. “And losing, as usual” tells us that Carla… [2 points]

a) is winning today b) is angry with her cousins c) never plays volleyball d) usually loses at volleyball

13. Why does text B say “you are helping the park”? [2 points]

a) because the ticket money pays for the new ramp b) because the lemonade is free

c) because children under 8 are free d) because the skaters clean the park

14. Why does text B mention last year? [2 points]

a) to explain the competition rules b) to describe the weather c) to say the music was good

d) to make people buy tickets quickly

15. Which text wants you to do something at a specific time? [2 points]

a) Neither of them. b) Only text A. c) Only text B.

d) Both: text A says “until five” and text B gives the date and time.

6 Reading log

Choose the correct note for each text: what people are doing, where and when, what they usually do, and the purpose. You can look at the text again.

Write without notes, as in the exam.

Your task [30 points]

You are recording a short vlog at a free-time event or hobby of your choice. Write the script (120–160 words) with these parts: greeting · live now (Present Continuous) · what you usually do there, plus a temporary situation this month · likes, dislikes and one opinion with a state verb (I think / I prefer) · three screen tips with a reason each (because / so) · goodbye. Link your sentences with and, but, because, so.

The student is recording a short vlog at a free-time event or hobby of their choice (a match, a skate park, a dance class, a concert, the beach…). The script has these parts: greeting; now (where they are, the weather, what people are doing, clothes or kit); usually; likes and dislikes; screen tips; goodbye.

Transcripts (only if you cannot listen)

Transcript 1 · Two vlogs: Ellie and Jack

Ellie: [cheerful] Hi everyone, I’m Ellie and welcome to my vlog! Today I’m at the town theatre, because my dance group is in a competition. It’s Saturday afternoon and it’s raining outside, but in here it’s hot and really noisy. I’m wearing my black costume and white trainers, and I’m very nervous!

Ellie: Right now the group from Girona is dancing on the stage, and they’re really good. We’re next! I usually practise on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the dance school, and I love it. But this month we’re training every day, because we want to win. [laughs] OK, the music is starting. Wish me luck!

Jack: [energetic] Hey! I’m Jack, and this is my football vlog. It’s Sunday morning and I’m at the sports centre for the school tournament. What’s the weather like? It’s cold and windy, about six degrees, so I’m wearing my tracksuit and a woolly hat.

Jack: My team is playing right now. Look! My friend Tom has the ball… he’s running… and he scores! One–nil! We usually lose, so this is amazing. I’m not playing today, because my leg hurts. I’m filming the match for our class channel.

Jack: One tip before I go: I love watching football videos, but don’t watch them in bed. Switch off your phone at night and sleep well. That’s what my coach says! See you next week!
