Sample exam

✏️ Paper worksheet: do the same activities as on the computer. Write your answers and circle the letter of the right option. Do it without notes the first time.

1 Before the exam: shadowing for the whole unit

A 6-minute review for listening and speaking: sentences from the unit's recordings. Listen, say them out loud, then do it again with no text. The video waits for you.

2 How the exam works

This sample exam has the same format and the same points as the real exam (which you will do in a Google Form). 55 minutes, no notes.

1 Listening: 5 questions + listening chart, 5 questions (2 points each)	20
2 Reading: 5 questions + reading log, 5 questions (2 points each)	20
3 Vocabulary: 7 multiple choice (1 point) + 4 gaps (2 points)	15
4 Grammar: 7 multiple choice (1 point) + 4 gaps (2 points)	15
5 Writing: a formal email	30
Total	100

All the questions are marked automatically: your first try is your score, as in the exam. The email is marked by ChatGPT with the exam criteria, which gives you a guide mark. At the end, My score shows your total.

⚠️ ChatGPT can make mistakes: its mark is only a guide. In the real exam, your teacher marks the email.

5 Reading: Two winter traditions

Read and answer, without notes.

In Catalonia, many families have a Caga Tió at Christmas. It is a small log with a face, a red hat and a blanket. From 8 December, children “feed” it every night and keep it warm. On Christmas Eve or Christmas Day, they hit it with sticks and sing a song, and the log “gives” them sweets and small presents.

In the UK and many other countries, children have an Advent calendar. It has 24 small doors, and children open one every day from 1 December. Behind each door there is a picture or a piece of chocolate. Advent calendars used to have only pictures, but today many have chocolate or small toys.

11. What do children do every night from 8 December? [2 points]
    a) They feed it and keep it warm. b) They sing to it. c) They open a door. d) They hit it with sticks.

12. What does the log “give” children? [2 points]
    a) only chocolate b) pictures c) sweets and small presents d) money

13. What did Advent calendars use to have? [2 points]
    a) only chocolate b) only pictures c) cards with songs d) small toys

14. When do children open the first door? [2 points]
    a) on 24 December b) on 8 December c) on 25 December d) on 1 December

9 43. Writing: a formal email

Write without notes, as in the exam.

Your task [30 points]

The community centre in your town is preparing an International New Year evening for families on Friday 8 January. Write a formal email (100–130 words) to Mr Jordi Serra, the director, proposing an activity about a New Year tradition from another country. Write it in paragraphs: why you are writing, your plan (which tradition, what families will do, using future forms), one request, and a formal closing. Use at least one relative clause (who / which / where).

Transcripts (only if you cannot listen)

Transcript 1 · Two New Years: Callum and Yuki

Callum: [cheerful] Hi, I’m Callum, from Edinburgh in Scotland. In Scotland, New Year’s Eve is called Hogmanay, and for us it’s bigger than Christmas! There’s a huge street party in the city centre, with concerts and fireworks over the castle at midnight. It’s usually freezing, so you wear about three jumpers. [laughs]

Callum: Then everyone holds hands and sings an old song, “Auld Lang Syne”. [laughs] Nobody knows all the words! It’s a song about old friends and remembering the good times. After midnight, we go “first-footing”: you visit your neighbours and you’re the first person to walk into their house in the new year.

Callum: You bring a small present, like shortbread or a piece of coal for the fire. My gran says the first visitor brings luck for the whole year, so she always makes sure a friendly neighbour comes first. Last year I was our neighbours’ first visitor, and they gave me a huge slice of cake. What I love is that the whole street feels like one big family.

Yuki: [calm] Hello, I’m Yuki, and I’m from Osaka in Japan. New Year, or Shōgatsu, is the most important holiday of the year for my family. Schools and many offices close for several days, and lots of people travel home to their parents’ houses. [thoughtful] It’s quite quiet, not like a party.

Yuki: On the thirty-first of December, we clean the whole house, so we can start the year fresh. In the evening we eat long noodles, because they mean a long life. At midnight, temple bells ring one hundred and eight times. On the first of January, we eat special food that my mother and grandmother cook for days, and we visit a shrine to pray for a good year. Children get money in small envelopes.

Yuki: We also send New Year cards to our friends and teachers, and they all arrive on the same morning. [softly] For me, New Year is about starting again. You leave the problems of the old year behind, and you thank your family for everything.
