★ Key words: learn them by heart. Cover the English column, read the Catalan and say or write the English word.

Review too (earlier Learning Paths): invite people · book a room · set up · run a stall

Study them: cover the English column and say each word in English. Then complete the sentences without looking at the table.

Complete the sentences

1. _____ Ms Puig,
2. I am writing _____ propose a celebration day.
3. We would _____ to organise an event.
4. Yours _____,
5. _____ we use the school hall?
6. Please let us _____ if you need more information.
7. I look forward to _____ from you.

3 Reading: a model email

Read the email and notice how it is organised: purpose, plan, requests, closing.

Subject: Proposal: Lights of the World Day

Dear Ms Puig,

I am writing to propose a celebration day for our school on Friday 11 December.

Our class would like to organise a “Lights of the World Day” about four festivals of light: Diwali, Hanukkah, Lunar New Year and Christmas. The event will take place in the school hall from 10.00 to 13.30. There will be four stalls, and Class 4B is going to make paper lanterns for the decorations. To make everyone feel welcome, each stall will explain the customs in simple words, so students who do not celebrate these festivals can join in. We are also inviting families and the primary school.

We think this event will help students learn about different cultures and feel proud of their own traditions. All our information comes from at least two reliable sources.

Could we use the school hall and the gym on that day? Would it be possible to use the school’s speakers for the music?

Please let us know if you need more information. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
Omar Haddad
4t ESO B

   a) families and the primary school b) the town council c) only students
6. What is their plan if it rains?
   a) cancel the event b) use the gym too c) go outside
7. Why do they need a plan for rain?
   a) The gym is closed in December. b) The hall is small if everyone is inside. c) The stalls are outside.
8. Which sentence from the meeting is too informal for your email?
   a) “Don’t worry.” b) “The event starts at ten.” c) “There will be four stalls.”

6 Shadowing · Student council meeting

Repeat part of the listening just behind the speaker, like a shadow.

How it works
Your teacher plays the clip three times: first read while you listen, then mumble the words along, then say them aloud just behind the speaker.

Laia: Great. And music?

Omar: My cousin plays in a band. I’ll call him tonight.

Laia: Perfect. Who’s going to put up the decorations?

Omar: Class 4B is going to make paper lanterns in Art.

Laia: And the invitations?

Omar: We’re sending them on Wednesday. We’re going to invite families and the primary school.

Laia: OK. One problem: the hall is small. What if it rains and everyone is inside?

Omar: Don’t worry. We’ll use the gym too.

Laia: Good idea. I think it’ll be the best day of the term!

7 Polite requests

Read how it works and complete.

How it works
would like to + verb: We would like to organise…
Polite requests: Could we…? · Would it be possible to…?

1. We would like _____ _____ (invite) families.
2. I would like _____ _____ (explain) our idea.
3. We would _____ to use the hall.
4. _____ it be possible to start at 10.00?
5. _____ we put up posters in the corridor?

8 Piece 5: the email to the head teacher

Write a draft, get AI feedback, improve it here and save it again: this is the version you will submit with the final product.

Your task

Write a full formal email in paragraphs: purpose, plan (with two concrete actions so every student and family feels welcome), request, closing.

Plantilla:

Dear ___,
I am writing to ___.
We would like to ___ on ___ in ___.
There will be ___ and ___.
To make everyone feel welcome, we will ___ and ___.
Could you ___?
Yours sincerely,

Minimum 100 words.

Check before you hand it in ☐ Formal greeting and ending

☐ Purpose in the first sentence

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

☐ Date, place and activities

☐ Two concrete welcome actions for students and families

☐ At least one request (Could we…? / Would it be possible…?)

☐ No contractions or informal words

9 Rehearse your part of the pitch

Record your part of the group video and check it against the final product checklist.

Your task
Record your part of the group pitch (35–45 s).

Model
Our proposal is a Lights of the World Day on Friday 11 December. It starts at ten in the school hall. There will be four stalls, and Class 4B is going to make lanterns. We think it will help everyone learn about other cultures.

Write what you will say · Then read it aloud three times and say it to your teacher.

10 Talk: the head teacher asks

The head teacher has read your email and asks you some questions. Answer politely and formally.

Your task
Answer politely and formally. Use would like, could and will, and give a reason for each request.

1. Good morning. What would you like to organise?

2. When would you like to do it?

© 2026 Roger Beltran · English Lab · All rights reserved

3. What do you need from the school?

4. Who is going to help you?

5. Why is it a good idea for the whole school?

6. How will you make sure everyone feels welcome?

Then · Have the conversation aloud with a classmate: they ask and you answer, then swap.

Model

Good morning. We would like to organise a Lights of the World Day with four stalls about festivals of light. We'd like to do it on Friday 11 December, from ten to half past one. Could we use the school hall and, if it rains, the gym? It's a good idea because students will learn about other cultures. We'll explain each custom with respect, so everyone feels welcome.

📚 Study guide: prepare for Checkpoint 4 and the final exam

How to study what you learn in this Learning Path, and practice that works like the checkpoint and looks like the exam. The answer key is at the end of each activity.

How to study

🧠 Test yourself, don't reread

Close your notes and try to remember: write the words, say the rule, answer the questions. Then check. Rereading and highlighting feel useful, but you remember much less.

Retrieval practice · Roediger & Karpicke 2006; Dunlosky et al. 2013

📅 Spread it out

Three short sessions of 15 minutes on different days work better than one long session the day before.

Spacing · Cepeda et al. 2006

🔀 Mix it up
Practise similar things together so you learn to choose the right one for each sentence.
Interleaving · Rohrer & Taylor 2007

✅ Check and fix at once
Mark your answers with the key straight away and write each wrong answer again, correctly.
Feedback · Hattie & Timperley 2007

💬 Say why
For every answer, say the reason: “on, because it’s a date.” Explaining makes the rule stick.

My plan

1. Today · Close this page and write from memory: the opening, one request and the ending of a formal email (Dear…, Could we…?, Yours sincerely). Then check.
2. In 2–3 days · Do “Practise for Checkpoint 4” below. Look at the key and write again what you got wrong.
3. Before Checkpoint 4 · Go over the flashcards: only the ones you still miss.
4. The week before the exam · Do the exam-style practice in every Learning Path, then the Sample exam. Repeat only the parts you failed.

What comes up

Checkpoint 4 (everything in Seasons & Celebrations): short gaps, one question at a time, about 45 seconds each, no going back and no notes. You do it once, and you must stay on the page: if you leave it, it is sent. It opens the next Learning Path.
Final exam: this Learning Path comes up in the Vocabulary (formal email language), the Grammar (would like to, polite requests) and the Writing: a formal email, like the one you write here.

Practise for Checkpoint 4

One question at a time · 45 s

It works like the real checkpoint: 11 questions, one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back and no notes. This is only practice: nothing is sent, you can repeat it, and at the end you see your answers and the key.

On paper: cover the questions and uncover them one at a time, about 45 seconds each, with no going back.

Transcripts (only if you cannot listen)

Transcript 1 · Student council meeting

Laia: OK, everyone. We're meeting the head teacher on Monday, so we need a plan today.

Omar: Right. The event is going to be about festivals of light: Diwali, Hanukkah, Lunar New Year and Christmas.

Laia: Good. When is it?

Omar: It's on Friday the eleventh of December. School finishes at two, so the event starts at ten and finishes at one thirty.

Laia: Where's it going to take place?

Omar: In the school hall. There will be four stalls, one for each festival.

Laia: What about food?

Omar: I'll ask the families. I think a lot of parents will help.

Laia: Great. And music?

Omar: My cousin plays in a band. I'll call him tonight.

Laia: Perfect. Who's going to put up the decorations?

Omar: Class 4B is going to make paper lanterns in Art.

Laia: And the invitations?

Omar: We're sending them on Wednesday. We're going to invite families and the primary school.

Laia: OK. One problem: the hall is small. What if it rains and everyone is inside?

Omar: Don't worry. We'll use the gym too.

Laia: Good idea. I think it'll be the best day of the term!
